Woods	2009	Orange County Register Mar 8 2009 Woods -Donald T. Woods, 79, devoted family man and 43-year resident of Anaheim, CA, passed away in the early morning hours of March 5, 2009, leaving his loving wife, Gerri of 56 years; his children, Lance, Dawn, Dijon, Renee, Susanne, and Colette; their spouses; his much-treasured 13 grandchildren; as well as many other extended family members and friends. Originally from suburban Chicago, Illinois, he attended Catholic schools there and then served in the Korean War. Don was a scuba diver, outdoorsman, world traveler, and hunter. He realized his dream of traveling for 15 months around the U.S. and Canada in a travel trailer with his family in 1968/1969. His sequel to that was to sail his 66-foot steel ketch sailboat "The Woodsy Bunch" with seven family members from Long Beach, CA to Florida in 1984 and then continued cruising the Caribbean Sea through 1987. He had a superior work ethic and modeled his Catholic faith, his patriotism, and his traditional values to the end.
