LOUIS RAIMONDO

Obituary

Louis Raimondo, 80, died peacefully on January 13, 2011. Born February 23, 1930, to Gerardo and Rose Raimondo in Chicago, Louis graduated from Loyola University with a B.S. in Marketing. He served in the U.S. Army in the Korean War and spent his career in sales. He married Lorraine Galdik in 1954. High school sweethearts, they remained married for 51 years until her death in 2005. They both shared a passion for travel and enjoyed trips to locations across the country and around the globe. Along their travels, they fell in love with San Diego and moved there in 1983. Lou was passionate, loyal, generous, and a good listener. But he will be most remembered for his sense of humor, which he maintained until the end. When a nurse asked him, "Where does it hurt?" he responded, "In my wallet." He is survived by his brother Anthony, sister Clara, sons Brad and Paul, daughters Beverly and Lori, and grandchildren Milan, Jasmine and Nino. A memorial service will be held at St. Gregory the Great Church, 11451 Blue Cypress Dr., SD, CA 92131, on Friday, January 21st, at 10:30 a.m. Published in San Diego Union-Tribune on January 19, 2011
